Martha and Mary

Luke 10:38-42

1. Martha is tidying the house	2. Mary listens to Jesus teach
3. Martha complains about her sister	4. Jesus says Mary chose better

What's the story?

Complete the sentence by circling the most appropriate word.

Martha and Mary were sisters/twins/lookalikes who lived in a small town near Jerusalem called Bethany.

They also had a brother called Lazarus.

One day, Jesus came to town and Martha (we think she was the tallest/oldest/grumpiest) invited him to their place. So Jesus went inside/outside/around the back.

Martha was going crazy/nuts/bananas, trying to get everything eaten/organised/arranged for the visit. She was probably doing the dishes/lawns/garden, cleaning everything and getting food/decorations/cheese ready.

But her sister didn't help at all. Mary was lounging/sitting/humming at the feet of Jesus and listening to everything he had to say.

This made Martha quite angry/irrational/moody. She started whinging/nagging/crying about how Mary wasn't helping and asked Jesus to tell her off.

But Jesus didn't do that. Instead, he said Mary had made the better/coolest/most amazing choice.

This doesn't mean we should hate/avoid/eat chores. But it means listening to Jesus is the most important/vital/wonderful thing we could ever do.
